Bug ID	BUG-002
Bug Title	Product title contains unnecessary code-like syntax for “T-Shirt (Red)”
Module	Product Listing
Environment	Browser: Chrome Intel Mac OS X 10_15_7
	OS:MAC OS 13.7.8 (22H730)
	Google Docs
Severity	High
Priority	High
Status	New
Reported By	M.Ayyan Irfan
Date	3 July 2026

Bug Description

The product title for the T-Shirt (Red) (Product ID: 3) is displayed as "Test.allTheThings() T-Shirt (Red)", which contains unnecessary code-like syntax at the beginning of the title. This makes the product title appear unprofessional and may confuse users.

Preconditions

- User is logged in using valid credentials (standard_user)
- User is on the Product Listing page

Steps to Reproduce

1. Launch the SauceDemo application.
2. Log in using the following credentials:
Username: standard_user
Password: secret_sauce
3. Navigate to the Product Listing page.
4. Locate the Test.allTheThings() T-Shirt (Red) product.
5. Observe the product title displayed.

Expected Result

The product title should contain only the correct product name and should not include unnecessary code-like syntax or formatting errors.

Actual Result

The product title is displayed as "Test.allTheThings() T-Shirt (Red)", where Test.allTheThings() appears to be unintended code-like text instead of part of the product name.

Evidence

- Screenshot attached (BUG-002.png) showing the incorrect product title.
